Exum

Copied from a letter to William Gaston Lewis, from Richard Henry Lewis, November 15, 1899.

"My grandfather Exum Lewis was the son of Colonel Exum Lewis - Revolutionary - who moved to Edgecombe about 1760 - from one of the Northeastern counties of North Carolina. His father came from Hansemond County, Virginia. The latter was descended from John Lewis, one of three brothers who emigrated from England early in the eighteenth century, and , soon after arriving in Virginia, separated, John remaining in Eastern Virginia, another in Middle Virginia, another in Western Virginia. Colonel Francis Lewis, (whose bronze statue is in Richmond, Virginia), was evidently descended from the western brother.

"Meriwether Lewis, the great explorer with Clarke, was one of the descendants of the same. The mother of our great grandfather was a Figures - corrupted from Figueras - a Spanish name. Our Grandmother Lewis' , nee Harrison, mother was a Biscoe from Maryland. Likely enough the Yankee general Biscoe from Maryland was one of the same stock."

WILL OF ZEBULON LEWIS

By the Grace of God this my last will and testament being in perfect memory: I first leave to my three sons my land to be equzly divided between them ( viz.) the Indian old field for my son Benjamin Lewis, the old plantation for my son Nathan Lewis and this where I now live for my son Zebulon Lewis. I desire if my wife should marry, that my sons should be at age at eighteen, but if not to serve their mother till they are at the age of one and twenty. I give to my son Benjamin Lewis my gun and my chest, when he comes of age and a cow and calf, when he is of age and a feather bed for Benjamin Lewis. I give to my son Nathan Lewis a cow and calf and a feather bed and furniture when he is of age, I give to my son Zebulon Lewis a cow and calf and feather bed and furniture, when he is of age. I give to my daughter Patience Lewis a cow and calf and feather bed and furniture, when she if of age. I give and bequeath to my loving wife the negro wench, all the rest of my Estate as long as she remain a widow and if she should marry, for the negro to be sold and the money to be divided amongst the children. August the 6th day, 1738. Testes this my last will and testament.

John Zachary Lewis 2nd wife was Elizabeth Brock

by whom he had one son John Zachary

John Zachary Lewis was a son of John Lewis of Spotsylvania Co. (b. in King and Queens Co. Oct. 18, 1729 d. Sept. 12, 1780) and Ann Lewis, Ann being his second wife; his first wife was Sarah Iverson. His second wife

Ann was a daughter of Col. Robert Lewis and Jane (Meriwether) Lewis of Albemarle Co. Jane was the daughter of Nicholas Meriwether. This Co. Robert Lewis was a brother of Fielding Lewis who married Geo. Washington's sister Betsy and Col. Robert was also grandfather of Meriwether Lewis, the explorer.

The sons of John Lewis of Spotsylvania and Ann Lewis were John Zachary, Charles and Nicholas Hunter (see Spotsylvania Record and Hayden's Genealogy).

We shall now take up John Zachary Lewis on his father's line and then on his mother's line.

His father John was a son of Zachary Lewis (2) of Spotsylvania Co. Zachary Lewis b. Jan. 1, 1702 d. Jan. 20, 1765. His will was dated July 7, 1764. He was married Jan. 9, 1725 by Rev. Theodore Stinge to Mary Waller (b. Jan. 20, 1699, d. Mch. 23, 1751) daughter of Col. John and Dorothy King Waller.

Zachary Lewis (2) was a son of Zachary Lewis (1) of Brecon or Bricknock in Wales who was the first of his line to settle in Va. He settled in King and Queen Co. 1692. See Hayden Va. Genealogy.

In the Spotsylvania Records, p. 41 is found the Will of John Zachary Lewis:

"John Z. Lewis, Gentleman, Berkeley Parrish, Spotsylvania Co. died March 7, 1784. Executor's bond dated Sept. 7, 1784,

LEWIS—Ancestry desired of Elizabeth Lewis (born 1777), of South Carolina, and her husband, Isaac Lewis (supposedly cousins, married 1794), born in Virginia in 1766. They owned land, 1798, on Haldaway Swamp (still known as Lewis Place) on the Saluda River, old Edgefield County (now Saluda), S. C. A. John Lewis (was he her father?) in 1795 made a deed of gift to his sons, James and Samuel, and to his daughter, Elizabeth. Witnesses were Benjamin Hightower and Joshua Hammond. Colonel Le Roy Hammond, will 1790, names nephews, James and Samuel, sons of my sister, Elizabeth Bailey, now Lewis. Was she the wife of John Lewis above, and mother of Elizabeth Lewis (married Isaac)? Data exchanged on Edgefield County Lewises prior to 1804, when this family moved to Kentucky.—MRS. JOHN P. COOK, 1325 West Nineteenth Street, Oklahoma City, Okla.

LEWISES.

Was Colonel Charles Lewis, who rendered such eminent service in the French and Indian wars and who was killed at the battle of Point Pleasant, a kinsman of Fielding Lewis, who married Betty Washington? I am very interested in this Colonel Lewis' life and genealogy.—Reader.

These Lewises were from entirely different families. Charles Lewis was the son of John Lewis (born 1673) who came from Ireland to Pennsylvania about 1731. He spent a winter there and then came to Virginia and settled in Augusta county. Fielding Lewis (born 1725) was a descendant of Robert Lewis (born 1607), who came from Wales in "The Blessing" to Gloucester county, Va., in 1635. Charles Lewis was born in 1736, and was killed Oct. 10, 1774, at the battle of Point Pleasant, where he was a major of the Virginia troops.

Saturday.

My dear Blanche:

I did enjoy our day at Serry so much - not with standing, I did not find Susanna
Edmunds where I wanted her -
Hope we can all have another day or two soon in the records
on the South side -

Just in case you are doing work from time to time - and should run across any of Mrs. Houston's lines - I'm sending them (again!)

I'm off for ten days in
Rd. & Buena Vista tomorrow -

With love - Hastily -
